[illegible]

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely Persian or Urdu, spanning the length of the strip. The text is arranged in several lines, with some characters appearing to be in a different script or dialect. The strip shows signs of age and wear, including a small dark spot near the center.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written on a single line across the page, with some characters appearing to be in a different script or dialect. The ink is dark and the paper is aged and slightly discolored.

Handwritten text in Devanagari script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in a cursive style and is arranged in several lines across the page. The paper is aged and shows signs of wear, including a prominent dark stain near the center.

Handwritten text on a long, narrow strip of aged paper, likely a manuscript or a page from a book. The text is written in a cursive script, possibly from the 18th or 19th century. The paper is yellowed and shows signs of wear, including a small dark spot near the center. The text is arranged in several lines, though the handwriting is somewhat faded and difficult to decipher. The strip appears to be a fragment of a larger document.

ॐ नमो भगवते वासुदेवाय

Handwritten text, possibly a signature or name, written in cursive script. The text is partially obscured by a large, dark, irregular hole in the paper.
